

Unit III Fire Management

National Wildlife Refuge System
1011 E. Tudor Road
Anchorage, Alaska 99503

Role of Fire

Unit III: Fire Management Table of Content

	Page
Background	1
Important information for teachers
Ecosystem Model (2-6)	13
Students construct a mural to show the effects of different human activities on the environment
Why We Manage Wildland Fires (8-12)	15
Students research why wildland fires are managed in Alaska
How We Manage Wildland Fires (5-12)	16
Students will choose appropriate priorities for management under given fire scenarios
Material Handouts
*Scenario Cards
Mapping a Fire Plan (6-12)	20
Students develop their own fire management plan
Material Handouts
*Fire Protection Map
Defensible Space (4-12)	24
Students design a plan to provide a defensible space around their home
Material Handouts
*Defensible Space Checklist
Community Views on Fire (6-12)	27
Students will research local community view points regarding fire management

A Little Piece of Forest or Tundra (6-12) 29
Students describe the different opinions usually associated with forest management

Material Handouts

- *Fire Policy Cards - Boreal Forest
- *Fire Policy Cards - Tundra
- *Fire Role Cards

Dilemmas in Fire Management (6-12) 38
Students discuss current fire management issues and the importance of making informed management decisions

Material Handouts

- *Forest and Tundra Dilemma Background Information Sheet #1
- *Forest and Tundra Dilemma Background Information Sheet #2
- *Forest and Tundra Dilemma Background Information Sheet #3